Researcher

I request access under the terms of paragraph 8(2)(k) of the Privacy Act to the following departmental records under the control of Indigenous Services Canada (ISC)/Crown-Indigenous Relations and Northern Affairs Canada (CIRNAC). The requested information contains personal information, as defined in section 3 of the Privacy Act. Paragraph 8(2)(k) of the Act permits disclosing personal information to researchers involved in the process of settling native claims. Since the Act requires that the privacy of individuals be protected, only the personal information necessary to accomplish the purpose will be disclosed. Thus, it is very important that the request be specific about the information being requested and the time frame involved. This authorization is valid only once.

I have a valid and subsisting Band Council resolution or letter of authorization from

Authorizing Indigenous Organization

Researcher's undertaking

In obtaining access to personal information under the provisions of paragraph 8(2)(k) of the Privacy Act, I hereby undertake not to use the personal information obtained pursuant to this request for any purpose other than the specific purpose of researching or validating the claims, disputes or grievances of the authorizing Indigenous Organization, or disclose the information to any person other than the authorizing Indigenous Organization.

I acknowledge that no further personal information will be provided to me if I violate this agreement.

Authorization

A copy of native claims researcher's authorization is attached.
